

Here are 12 boys and girls.
They need to get themselves into pairs.
How many pairs will there be?

Here are 20 people.
They get into teams of four people.
How many teams do they make?
Write an equation for what you have done.
Can you write a division equation?

Here are 18 people.
A car can take 3 people.
How many cars do you need to take all the people to the show?
Write a division equation for what you have done.

There are 54 players.
They get into teams of six for a volleyball tournament.
How many teams do they make?
Write a division equation for this problem.

There are 120 people to take to the kapa haka festival.
Each minibus takes 8 people.
How many minibuses are needed?
Write a division equation for this problem.