

Sorting out travel

Here are some different forms of transport.

Show how they could be sorted into groups that share common features.

Explain what the members of each group have in common.

