

I have saved $70 and I spend $30.
How much have I left?

---

Eighty people are in the school hall. Fifty leave.
How many are still in the hall?

---

I have $30 and I am given some more money. Now I have $60.
How much was I given?

---

I have a bag of marbles. I am given 20 more. Now I have 90 marbles.
How many were in my bag to start with?

---

Twenty cars are in the car park. Thirty more come in and then another thirty.
How many cars altogether are now in the car park?

---

I have some money in my pocket. I lose $40 and now I have just $10.
How much was in my pocket to start with?

---

I won some marbles then lost 30. Now I have 20 left.
How many did I win at the beginning?

---

There are one hundred cows in the field. Seventy are moved into the milking shed.
How many are left in the field?

---

Forty kumara were in the basket. Some more were added and now there are ninety.
How many kumara were added?

---

Seventy tomatoes were in the tray. The customers took theirs and there are ten left.
How many tomatoes did the customers take?