

Leanna has cut her cake into five big slices. She has twenty pebbles to put into the icing on the top of the cake.

How many pebbles should she put on each slice?

Hone has seven friends coming for saturday brunch. One of the plates has 32 oysters. If they are shared out fairly, how many will each person get?.

There are eighteen kūmara wedges on the plate. Tom eats two-thirds of the wedges.

How many wedges does he eat?

