

Multiplication Stories: Array problems

1. How many students are lining up for sports day?

2. How many pieces are in the whole chocolate block?

3. How many cars are parked?

4. How many eggs are in a carton?

5. How many windows are there?

6. How many orange trees are there?

7. How many ice-cubes are there when the tray is full?

8. How many seats are at the theatre?

